because God works in the tribulation in us. He it is that causes tribulation to work out in our lives the grace of patience. He causes the grace of patience to work out in our experience approvedness, so that we know we stand before God as the objects of His approval. Tue, 15 Jan 2019 21:55:00 GMT
Glorying in Tribulation - My Only Comfort - the great tribulation is behind us. This is what David Chilton argues in The Great Tribulation. Jesus warned His people of a great tribulation to come in the very near future. In the chapter on the great tribulation in Matthew, Christ's words are recorded: "Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all Thu, 07 Feb 2019 01:18:00 GMT THE GREAT TRIBULATION - garynorth.com - No, never was a nature more sensitive than Paul's. He does not mean that he gloried in the midst of his tribulations, notwithstanding his tribulations, treating them as matters of no account and even of contempt. They were the very ground of his glorying. Nor was his glorying mistaken. Tribulation a Ground of Glorying - biblehub.com - Scripture, in the Old and New Testaments links Christ return with the events surrounding Jerusalem, Israel and the Temple Mount. These three places play a prominent focal point in the period known as the "Tribulation". Over 500-years before the birth of Jesus, Daniel wrote about the exact day of Messiah's death.
